Enjoy your breakfast at hotel. After early breakfast, check out formalities, pick up from your Launceston hotel between 7.00-7.30am and depart Launceston ready for an action packed day out exploring the delights and highlights of the East Coast before finishing our day in Hobart.

Our first stop today is in the pretty township of Ross. Ross has an old-world charm, convict history, and famous local bakery for you to explore on our morning stop. From Ross we travel to the East Coast and head into the Freycinet National Park. This coastal National Park is our main destination for the day. Here the pink granite mountains form the backdrop for turquoise waters, secluded bays and beaches and sparkling white sand. We offer opportunities for short or longer walks, a swim in the warmer months and great photos all year round! We make a short stop as we enter the park at Freycinet Marine Farm where you have an opportunity to buy some fresh oysters along the way.

This is one of Tasmania's "Great Short Walks", around 45 minutes, concluding at the remarkable rock formations of Tasman Arch and Devil's Kitchen. Next stop is the Tasmanian Devil Unzoo. We arrive here for the action of a Tasmanian Devil Feeding. Watch the snarling, fighting and bone crushing in a spectacle of devilish behaviour during the feeding. Hand feed the wallabies and walk amongst the local fauna and flora in the charming "Unzoo" setting. Just a short drive down the road, we enter the Port Arthur Historic Site.
